Airtel named best service provider in Asia-Pacific

9 Jun 2009, 2056 hrs IST, IANS

NEW DELHI: Bharti Airtel, one of India's leading telecom service providers, has been adjudged the best service provider in the Asia-Pacific region by telecom research and consultancy firm Frost and Sullivan.

The company has bagged top honours for overall service quality and has been adjudged the service provider of the year in the "Best of the Best" category, Airtel said in a statement Tuesday.

"The awards recognise Bharti Airtel's commitment to technology and business innovation, and globally benchmarked quality of services," said Manoj Kohli, chief executive and joint managing director of Airtel.

Vietnam's telecom major Viettel has been named as the best emerging markets' service provider.

India's outsourcing company IBM Daksh was declared the best contact centre outsourcing service provider of the year.
