

Plaques 2005

David Nishball

David Storrie

Nick Hutton

Richard Duggan

tough calls they had to make!"

Who will take home Asia Pacific's most coveted titles in technology?

Stay tuned.... this year's award recipients will be revealed at a prestigious black-tie banquet to be held at the Shangri-la Hotel Singapore on June 15, 2005, to be officiated by Singapore Senior Minister of State of the Ministry of Information, Communications and the Arts, Dr Balaji Sadasivan.

The banquet will also be graced by the President of Frost & Sullivan, Aroop Zutshi.

Sponsors and partners of the Frost & Sullivan Asia Pacific Technology Awards 2005

The Charlton Media Group is the official media partner for the Frost & Sullivan Asia Pacific Technology

sional staff strength of over 5,500 people, six development centers worldwide, over US$220 Mil in annual revenues and strong technology and domain competencies in IT and Telecom.

Manish Vyas, MBT Regional Director for South East and North Asia, said, "MBT supported the Frost & Sullivan Asia Pacific Technology Awards as the platinum sponsor because we are impressed by the objective as well as the quality of the event. Association to the awards also offers synergy with MBT's strong focus in IT and telecoms. MBT, being a key member of the ICT ecosystem is happy to network with industry leaders from service providers as well as vendors."

Also supporting the event are Bronze Sponsors, Agere Systems and Premiere Global Services.

Gold Featured Nominees of the Frost & Sullivan Asia Pacific Technology Awards 2005 are Huawei